

Wood Gate Hill

Chuck Michael & Chris Coffey – Louisburg, Kansas

“Gardening is the work of a lifetime, you never finish.” – Oscar de la Renta

In 1987, Wood Gate Hill was 80 acres of undeveloped farmland. The subsequent 33 years have witnessed the property's evolution into a magnificent estate with extraordinary plant collections and an abundance of traditional fine garden art. Both Chuck and Chris are serious, knowledgeable collectors with specific interests ranging from specimen conifers to iron lanterns to Greek revival statuary to classic cars to exotic breeds of geese. With a greenhouse for overwintering the many tropical palms and ferns, the garden has a distinctly Victorian appearance, reinforced by the wrought iron fencing and lanterns.
