Cooperative Leadership House

"Above all smile graciously"
The sisters in Alpha of Clovia are provided with the opportunity to grow in their leadership, experience group living, and build community with other young women. Though affiliated with 4-H, Clovia is open to all women studying for their Undergraduate Degree at Kansas State University.

Intramurals, homecoming events, and socials, are just a few of the many activities Clovers participate in.

When guidance is needed, Clovia’s housemother is always available in her in-house apartment. New Clovers go through a semester-long training where they learn house policies, Clovia history, and receive a big sister to mentor them throughout their time in Clovia.
