Livestock Auction - Saturday, August 8
Sale starts at 10:00 a.m.
All Sale forms must be turned in by Thursday at noon to the Fair Office.

Youth will be allowed to show from their trailer. If exhibitors want or need to use a stall please alternate stalls to maintain social distancing. Animals are not required to be housed at the fairgrounds during the week; however exhibitors are welcome to use a stall during fair week beginning Monday at 10:00 a.m. until Saturday at 1:00 p.m. All stalls will need to be cleaned when exiting the fairgrounds.

All exhibitors will need to have livestock tagged (virtually or EID), YQCA certification, Linn County Fair pre-entries completed on-line by July 15. Horses must have been identified with horse ID paper by May 1.

At this time no spectators will be allowed to view shows and we ask exhibitors to not congregate with each in groups. Shows will be streamed via the Linn County 4-H Facebook page. If there are changes to this procedure they will be posted on the Linn County 4-H Facebook page.

Livestock Auction
The auction will take place as usual. All animals to be sold in the auction will need to be checked in to the fairgrounds by 8:00 a.m. Saturday morning, if they were not stalled at the fairgrounds.
Auction forms will need to be completed for all locker and auction animals. Auction forms will be available from the fair office or from Abbie. More details about the auction will come from the Linn County Fairboard Auction Committee.
